

STAY.
EXPLORE.

ON THE HILL HOBART

Your own little Hobart chapter.

A guest guide to the apartment, coastal walks, active days and local discoveries.

GEILSTON BAY / TASMANIA

onthehillhobart.com/local-guide

SEPTEMBER 2026 EDITION / LINKS ARE CLICKABLE

SETTLE IN

Welcome to the hill.

A self-contained two-bedroom apartment in a peaceful Geilston Bay setting. Up to four guests, with space to make yourself at home.

CHECK-IN FROM 3 PM

CHECK-OUT BY 10 AM

Your space

The apartment forms part of a larger family home, with its own front and rear entries, two bedrooms, one bathroom and a kitchen.

Sleep your way

The main bedroom has a king bed. The second can be set up as a king or two singles; request your preference before arrival.

Everyday comforts

Wi-Fi and free parking are available. A car is useful for exploring the wider region; see page 8 for other transport options.

Pets and accessibility

Ask before booking with a pet so suitability and any conditions or charges can be confirmed. Contact us before booking to discuss step-free access or specific mobility needs.

Arrival and booking details

Follow the arrival instructions supplied for your reservation. Prices, extra charges and cancellation conditions are those agreed through your booking channel.

WALKS & FRESH AIR

Follow a different path.

Start beside the Derwent or make a separate trip to the mountain. Distances below describe the routes, not the distance from the apartment.

Geilston Bay / start at Debomfords Lane

Geilston Bay to Lindisfarne foreshore

Follow the water towards Simmons Park in Lindisfarne, taking in yachts and views across the Derwent. The official route is 3.5 km; allow for your return journey. Some shoreline sections are narrow and rocky and can be affected by very high tides. Dogs must be on lead.

Official information & planning

Geilston Bay / Bedlam Walls headland

takara limuna / Sheoak Walk

Take in the River Derwent from this headland trail, reached via the Shag Bay Track. Read the route and access notes before setting out; the approach is additional to the short headland walk itself.

Official information & planning

Risdon / entry off Grasstree Hill Road

Risdon Brook reservoir circuit

A 4.3 km circuit around the reservoir on a wide track, with some undulating sections and bushland views. A good option for a longer walk or a run. Dogs are not permitted. Check the track page for access information before travelling.

Official information & planning

Bellerive, Howrah & Waverley Flora Park

Charles Darwin Trail

Make a longer outing of the coast and bushland on this approximately 12 km route from Kangaroo Bay. The council grades the walk moderate; the route includes hills, gravel and local streets. Allow time for the whole circuit and follow the mapped route and dog restrictions.

Official information & planning

Wellington Park / plan a separate outing

kunanyi / Mount Wellington

Choose a mountain walk to suit the weather, daylight and your experience. Wellington Park's visitor information covers access, trails and road conditions. Pack warm layers and check current closures before heading up; conditions on the mountain can differ from those in Hobart.

Official information & planning

SPORT & RECREATION

Make an active day of it.

A local game, a swim, a bike ride or a day in the stands. Book directly with the operator and check conditions before heading out.

Geilston Bay

Geilston Bay Tennis Club

Fit in a game during your stay. Use the club's court-booking page to check available sessions, hire conditions and charges. Arrange equipment and access with the club before you go.

Official information & planning

4 Loinah Crescent, Montagu Bay

Clarence Aquatic Centre

An indoor swimming option for a workout or family pool visit. Check lane availability, admission and supervision requirements directly. The centre also posts maintenance closures on its website, so check those before setting off.

Official information & planning

Meehan Range / Flagstaff Gully Link Road access

Clarence Mountain Bike Park

A skills area and a network of mountain-bike trails, with routes ranging from beginner to advanced. Choose a trail for your ability and check the current map and conditions. Some features involve substantial jumps and drops; dogs are not allowed on the mountain-bike tracks.

Official information & planning

Bellerive Oval / Bellerive

Live sport at Ninja Stadium

See what is on at Hobart's eastern-shore stadium during your visit. Use the official events and ticket information for current fixtures, entry arrangements and transport planning. Events vary by season.

Official information & planning

Before you set off

Bring the equipment you need and choose activities for your ability. Pool maintenance and private bookings can affect access. Check the aquatic centre's current notices, not just its opening hours.

BEACHES & FAMILY TIME

Leave room for discovery.

Combine a little beach time, a playground stop or a wildlife outing. These destinations are spread across the region; plan transport for each one.

Derwent Street, Bellerive

Bellerive Beach & Beach Park

Combine beach time with a playground, picnic area and outdoor fitness equipment. Council lists toilets and barbecue facilities at the park. Check the local signs for beach conditions and dog rules; dogs are not permitted in the park itself.

Official information & planning

Seven Mile Beach / further along the eastern shore

Seven Mile Beach

A change of pace for a beach stroll and some open coastal space. Plan your access point using council's visitor information, and check signs and conditions on arrival. Allow for the drive from Geilston Bay.

Official information & planning

593 Briggs Road, Brighton / day outing

Bonorong Wildlife Sanctuary

Plan a wildlife-focused outing in Brighton. Check the sanctuary's admission, tour options and visitor information before you go, and book any special experiences directly with Bonorong.

Official information & planning

BACK AT THE APARTMENT / A PLACE TO SLOW DOWN

CULTURE & DAY TRIPS

A little further afield.

Art, local stories, a market morning or village wandering. Choose one main outing and give yourself time to enjoy it.

Hobart waterfront precinct

Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery

An indoor option for art, natural history and Tasmania's stories, with family-friendly experiences. General entry is free. Check current exhibitions, opening days and any separately ticketed activities on the museum's visitor page.

Official information & planning

Berriedale / plan a separate outing

Mona

Make time for the Museum of Old and New Art. Check opening days, ticket arrangements and transport options on Mona's visitor page before planning your day.

Official information & planning

Salamanca Place, Hobart

Salamanca Market

Build a market morning into your stay, with stalls to browse in the Salamanca precinct. Check the official calendar before visiting, particularly around public holidays, and plan your transport into the city.

Official information & planning

Richmond / Coal River Valley day trip

Richmond village

Spend an unhurried outing around the historic bridge, village shops and cafés. Tourism Tasmania's town guide is a useful starting point for choosing what to visit and planning a drive through the area.

Official information & planning

A rainy-day idea

Check TMAG's exhibitions or plan a visit to Mona. Confirm opening days before you travel; they do not share the same schedule.

FOOD & EVERYDAY ESSENTIALS

The useful little things.

Coffee, a relaxed meal, groceries for the kitchen and help when you need it. Follow the links for current store and service information.

Lindisfarne

Banjo's Lindisfarne

A bakery and café option for coffee, bread, pies and something sweet. Check the store's current menu and opening hours before you head out.

Official information & planning

Lindisfarne

Beltana Hotel bistro

An eastern-shore option for a bistro meal, with a harbour outlook. See the current menu and dining information, and book directly if you have a particular evening in mind.

Official information & planning

121 East Derwent Highway, Lindisfarne

IGA Lindisfarne

Pick up groceries and ingredients for the apartment kitchen, or supplies for a picnic. Use the official store page for current opening hours and contact details.

Official information & planning

17-19 Franklin Street, Lindisfarne

TerryWhite Chemmart Lindisfarne Village

A pharmacy option for travel essentials and advice from a pharmacist. Check the store page for current opening hours and available services.

Official information & planning

Phone 1800 022 222

healthdirect health advice

For health advice, contact healthdirect on 1800 022 222. For a life-threatening emergency, call 000. The official website explains how the service can help.

Official information & planning

GETTING AROUND & STAYING IN TOUCH

Good plans. Easy days.

Arrange transport to suit your itinerary. Check return services as well as your outward trip, especially for evenings and weekends.

Geilston Bay, eastern shore & Hobart

Metro Tasmania buses

Plan your journey using Metro's current Hobart maps and timetables. Check the nearest suitable stop and your return service; a listed suburb does not mean every departure serves the same stops.

Official information & planning

Bellerive to Hobart

Derwent Ferries

Consider a river crossing between Bellerive and Hobart as part of a city outing. Check operating days, fares and the last return sailing with the operator, and arrange your trip to the Bellerive terminal.

Official information & planning

Hobart Airport → your accommodation

Hobart Airport transport

Compare airport car hire and taxi options before arrival. Confirm pickup arrangements and the journey to Geilston Bay with your chosen provider. Airport services are arranged separately from your accommodation booking.

Official information & planning

Outdoors, with a plan

Check weather, track notices and local signs. Take water and layers, and follow dog restrictions. TasALERT has current warnings; Greater Hobart Trails has more mapped walks and rides.

Your hosts

info@onthehillhobart.com

onthehillhobart.com

Local sources checked 29 September 2026. Each entry links to its official source. Opening hours, prices, access and services can change; confirm directly before visiting. This dated brochure complements the website's local guide. Property photographs show On The Hill Hobart, not the listed attractions.